NALCAB Elects First Slate of All-Female Board Officers

*National Latino-serving Organization Marks
20 Year Anniversary with Leadership Milestone*

(SAN ANTONIO, TX & WASHINGTON DC) – The National Association for Latino Community Asset Builders (NALCAB) announces its 2022 Board of Directors, which for the first time, includes a women-led executive committee. As the hub of a national network of nonprofits focused on economic mobility and investment in Latino communities across the US, NALCAB provides funding, training and policy advocacy that advance social and racial equity.

“As NALCAB marks its 20-year anniversary this year, it's only fitting that we've reached this fantastic milestone,” said Marla Bilonick, President & CEO of NALCAB. “Our Board has always had formidable Latina leaders represented, but as a Latina myself, to have these four experienced and influential women ushering NALCAB into our next chapter, is nothing short of inspirational.”

NALCAB's 2022 Board Officers include:
