- 1. Assuming all sessions will be in English, do you have any tools that you are using or plan to use for those who are not fluent in English?
 - Yes, we use both Spanish and English in our sessions. Many of the activities and participation can be in Spanish, since that is the language that some Fellows feel more comfortable with. The NALCAB Fellowship Staff is bilingual, and we are always happy to translate if needed.

- 2. Is it necessary to request an interpreter in advance?
 - If needed, this can be discussed further once fellows are selected since it depends on whether all fellows understand Spanish. Many of the presentations are done in English, but your participation can be in Spanish.

- 3. Would it be possible to see past leadership project examples?
 - Yes, please see below for examples of past community development projects.

The NALCAB Fellowship Staff is bilingual, and we are always happy to translate if needed.

11. Can the application essay be more than 2000 words?

13. Is the final presentation of the Community Development Project done in front of all attendees at the NALCAB National Conference or in front of a select group? Who will make the final decision for the award?

- The project is presented in front of current fellows, a group of NALCAB staff and some funders. Current fellows will score the project and NALCAB staff and funders will provide feedback.

14. What steps will NALCAB take to ensure COVID safety during in-person events?

- We provide masks, hand sanitizers and COVID tests at all in-person events and we will recommend not participating in trainings to fellows who have COVID symptoms. In addition, we actively wipe down and disinfect work areas each day.

15. Must participants be vaccinated?

- As of right now, we are not requiring that fellows be vaccinated.

16. Will we always work in the same groups?

- No. We try to make sure you are interactive with everyone in your fellowship, so you will not be working in the same group.

17. If we have prior travel plans that conflict with any of the in-person trainings, would it be possible to attend virtually?

- This can be discussed on a case-by-case scenario, but we highly recommend attending in-person. Please reach out to fellowship@nalcab.org with more questions.

18. Can fellows collaborate on the final Community Development Project?

- Fellows can help and provide feedback on each other's projects, but final projects must be completed and submitted individually.

19. How much is the travel cost commitment from each Fellows' organization? Can you give me an idea?

- The travel cost would include the flight and hotel and be roughly a total of $5,000-$6,000. This includes about $200 per night for the hotel and about $400-$600 for flight, for each in-person training. NALCAB will provide breakfast and lunch during in-person trainings.

20. What happens if for some reason the project is not presented at the end of the program?

PETE

- The project must be presented to graduate from the Fellowship. If a fellow is unable to present the project, this can be discussed on a case-by-case basis, and we can work with you to find other options to present.

21. Would hotels have a group discount? If so, would NALCAB facilitate that?

- Yes, NALCAB will reserve a hotel block and Fellows will be able to book their rooms using a group discount rate.

22. If someone needs to drop out of the Fellowship, would the fee be refunded?

- This would be worked out on a case-by-case basis. In the past, we have given a partial refund if it is early in the program, though we discourage this as it is not fair to the other participants and can disrupt the cohesiveness of the group. When applying for the Fellowship, please consider the time commitment necessary to complete the program.
