NALCAB Focuses on Delivering for Latino Families in Wake of 2024 Election Results

(Washington, DC) – Marla Bilonick, President & CEO of the National Association for Latino Community Asset Builders (NALCAB) released the following statement in reaction to the 2024 US Election results.

“NALCAB remains steadfast in our commitment to advancing economic prosperity for Latinos in the US. Our mission has persisted and will persist, regardless of changes to our national leadership. Our network of economic development nonprofits and community development financial institutions (CDFIs) requires the same unfettered attention, the same resources and unwavering dedication from the federal government to ensure the economic health and success of the communities we serve. NALCAB will continue to work towards building the economic wealth and resiliency of diverse Latino communities across all 50 states, DC, and Puerto Rico today and moving forward.”

About NALCAB

The National Association for Latino Community Asset Builders (NALCAB) is the hub of a national network of 200+ member organizations that are anchor institutions in geographically and ethnically diverse Latino communities in 50 states, Washington DC, and Puerto Rico. NALCAB supports its member institutions through funding, training, research, and advocacy, enabling them to invest in their communities by building affordable housing, ensuring equitable neighborhood development, supporting small business growth, and providing financial counseling on issues including credit building and homeownership. As a grantmaker and US Treasury certified CDFI lender with offices in San Antonio and Washington DC, the NALCAB Network serves hundreds of thousands of low- to moderate-income people, advancing economic equity and inclusivity.
